Language and Communication skills

Language and communication skills are essential aspects of human interaction, serving as the bedrock of social, professional, and personal relationships. Proficiency in language enables individuals to express thoughts, convey emotions, exchange ideas, and collaborate effectively. This write-up will delve into the significance of language and communication skills, exploring their impact on various aspects of life.

To enhance Language and Communication skills, the Department of English and Department of Telugu organized a range of activities, including reading and writing exercises, group discussions, and skit performances. Students enthusiastically participated in these activities, actively engaging with the programs designed to improve their linguistic and communication abilities.
